We have been busy this fall studying Native Americans in our Social Studies unit. From Christopher Columbus to North America maps to the first Thanksgiving, our students are soaking up the information!

One of our favorite events of the year is the upcoming Polar Express field trip on December 15!

Twas The Night Before First Grade's Field Trip

Twas the night before our field trip,
When all through the school,
There was so much excitement,
Twas hard following rules.

Instructed to wear the craziest clothes,
Wear pajamas,
Bring blanket,
And slippers for toes.

The air will be frosty,
Our breath we will see.
We'll be wanting hot chocolate
With marshmallows three.

Arrive at the library
Several choices there'll be.
Take a tour, get a card,
Read a book, and a movie to see.

Be watching for notes
To tell where and when,
We'll take this adventure
And leave about ten.

Also, we love learning about graphing!

(Mrs. Hoff's class)

How many teeth do you want for Christmas?

(Mrs. Childers' class)
Favorite Winter Activity?

"Other" responses: "Decorate the tree!" (Charlie); "Make my Christmas list!" (Kate); "Skiing down a mountain!" (Jack B.); "Snowboarding up and down a hill!" (Gage); "Making snow angels!" (Kailey)
